Derryberry Announced as Lead Consultant for Return On Ingredients®

Westerville, OH—Return On Ingredients® is proud to announce Kari Derryberry as the Lead Consultant specializing in Hospitality Management, Catering, and Events. Prior to Return On Ingredients, she served as an executive team member and General Manager for Cameron Mitchell Premier Events. Her hospitality experience spans from restaurant management, training, event execution, leadership, and organizational development. Over the last 15 years Kari has been a part of the leadership teams of Cameron Mitchell Premier Events, Cameron Mitchell Restaurants, and West Side Hospitality Group.

Kari's leadership with Cameron Mitchell Premier Events was diverse in many ways. She not only oversaw daily operations, implemented standard operating procedures, participated in recruiting and training, supported sales goals and profitability, but also lead all associate culture activities and community awareness initiatives.

Kari played a key role in developing teambuilding programs, writing personnel and training manuals, creating associate development workshops, implementing sales team goals and go to market "GTM", and management counsel.

Kari began a partnership with The Ohio State University Hospitality Management program in 2013, as an internship advisor to the students. She has mentored over 50 students and remains connected with a majority of them to this day. She has proudly onboarded several students to the Cameron Mitchell Premier Events team as well.

Kari's had the unique privilege to be a part of leading and executing major events in Ohio. Her favorites include the Memorial Tournament, Presidents Cup, Senior Open, Republican National Convention, and American Society of Association Executives (ASAE).
